Meraki Recovery Housing located in Blaine is home to 9 men in addiction recovery.

Come to the table is an opportunity for the community to support Meraki house in recovery, show them that people care and help erase the stigma of addiction by coming together with a meal.

Every Thursday a person, group or business prepares a meal for the house and joins the guys for a dinner.

- Every Thursday 5pm-6:30pm
- Make it simple or gourmet
- Be a ear, a friend, a community member that cares
- End stigma and support recovery

“Just because I was an addict, doesn’t make me a bad person. Deep down inside we are wonderful, loving people”.
